Dear [Redacted]

STAT

It is a distinct pleasure for me to express my personal thanks, and the thanks of the faculty and student body, for the fine presentation concerning "The Evolution of the Intelligence Community Staff" that you gave at the Defense Intelligence School on Tuesday, 7 April 1981. Your presentation contributed significantly toward the achievement of our teaching objectives in the National Senior Intelligence Curriculum (NSIC).

Your lecture was extremely interesting and informative. It gave our students an excellent insight into the background and development of the Intelligence Community Staff. Your assessment of present trends was particularly enlightening.

Do convey our condolences and best wishes for a speedy recovery to [Redacted] We sincerely hope he is back on his feet again soon.
